Dear Das

As you may be aware, Defence Civilian Medical Aid Fund (DCMAF) provides financial assistance to the members in case they or their dependents suffer from certain specified ailments. The fund is managed by the Government body headed by the Defence Secretary has been in existence since 1953.

We have been circulating the special features of the DCMAF and encouraging the Officers and Staff of the Defence Accounts Department to subscribe to the fund on a voluntary basis from time to time. As on date around 1400 DAD personnel have opted for the DCMAF, but the number is far short of the expectations from our esteemed department.

I am enclosing the salient features of the DCMAF for your kind information and for giving wide publicity amongst the Officers and Staff for subscribing to the fund. The Annual/Lifetime membership fee is a negligible and is based on the Grade Pay of an employee in a particular Pay Band. Necessary forms relating to DCMAF can be downloaded from 'caomod.nic.in/dcmaf/01_medicalaid.htm'. Information on the fund is also available on the CGDA's website.

In view of the above, may I seek your personal intervention for giving wide publicity on the benefits of the DCMAF thereby encouraging the Officers and Staff of your organization to fully utilize the benefits of this scheme.

With warm regards

Yours

(Z.V.S. Prasad)
